PRICES TEND UP
New York, N.Y., Mar. 1.—Stocks turned upward early this afternoon after an early period of irregularity. Short covering played an important part of the buying movement, particularly in such issues as American National Radio and International Tel. all of which recorded substantial gains. Net advances in the stock market were as follows:

DOF TWOX
Group No. 1 of the Boy Scouts played a game of football on the field at the camp. The boys were divided into two teams of 11 players each. The game was played for one hour and the result was a score of 14 to 0 in favor of the home team.

these were interspersed with sprays of losses almost as large.

Credit conditions were unimpaired with call loans apparently in plentiful supply at the renewal figure of 10 per cent. The low yield basis of the New York City Corporate stock fund was widely interpreted as evidence of underlying ease of money conditions.

TODAY'S THOUGHT

A NEW HAT

From different parts of the world
come rumblings of a great reform
which is perhaps overdue—a reform
a hat for men that is comfortable,
hygienic and stylish.

In Germany, in anticipation of the approaching summer, a demand has been made for a straw hat that is both
easy to wear and pleasant to look at.
It is reported that a committee of
experts has been appointed to select one.

A few years ago Turkey put on the
the hat. Today it is disabused with European standards and wants something better. Not long since a real Byzantine doctor who once
denied the hat, and offered a prize
for the best design for a "washable
and with a him, suitable for citizens
and peasants."

In the western world there are five
standard types of men's headgear.
They are the silk or top hat, the derby
or bowler, the fedora or soft hat, the
draw hat or bowler, and the cloth cap.
The Panama hat, once so popular
for summer wear, seems to have fallen out of favor, a fact not easily
explained as it was an eminently suitable and serviceable hat for hot weather.

Of the five types mentioned, the
silk hat may at once be dismissed for "distinctions and peasants." It is now
the official costume of the wealthy chieftains and fashionable bachelors. As a practical hat it is no longer to be considered. It survives only as a ritual.

Of the remaining four not one of them meets properly the demands of a real head covering. The derby is not a type of headgear, it is a type of comfort. It cannot be worn
without to facial recreation, and it falls on hygienic grounds. The band design, may appeal to that draw hat, though the victor of that
draw hat, known as the "silly
dresser"; but like the bowler, it is too
right for comfort, and more at fault
as a total loss.

The fedora comes nearest to satisfying demands, as its present popularity
proves; but it, too, lacks an indelible
something. The cap is comfortable enough but a little too off-hand for
most occasions.
But unless one joins the No Hat
Bride one must wear something
which account for the "indefinite"
rewards reported from certain quarters.
It is to be feared that there will be no
radical departure from the stereotyped
designs, but one day some of the
generally efficacious hat may be discovered. At all events one may look forward with hope to the possibility
of the prize winning design in the European contest.

WOMEN ALRIGHT

"Drinking among women reported to be on the increase."
This is the heading placed on a
"Review report" of a speech delivered
by a prominent woman worker in the ranks of one of the political parties.
She was attacking the Ontario liquor
act, and pointed to the increase in the number of barmaids and drinkers, the number of liquor stores, and
the varieties of liquor sold, and

personally drew the conclusion that men were doing more drinking than
they ever did, because liquor was more accessible in the homes.

It seems to be a favorite pastime
with social reformers, when new subjects are chosen, to return to the time-
honored custom of attacking women,
their styles, their habits and their general demeanor. The conclusion is generally reached after the discussion
of a few hard and indirect charges,
that present-day women are greatly
inferior to those who lived a generation or so ago. It is not so bad
when the critics are confined to the men, but when women begin to consider their own sex, and have their weaknesses before the world, it is about the unkindest of all. Much of the male criticism of women is made in the spirit of banter, but when
women themselves enter the argument
they are usually attacking things of strength. Aching heads, painful
necks, nervousness, blueness,
and the like are the charges that constitute brings on.

Guardian of the Family Health

The children love delicious Ovaltine, as do between milk, drinking on its three goodness. Older folk find Ovaltine indispensable. One cup of it gives them more
fortification than 11 eggs,
beef tea or three eggs.
Babies digested and quickly
placed on the use of their weakened digestion.

Conducive to sleeplessness
Free of drugs or narcotics, Ovaltine is a most wonderful food, by feeding and feeding, and feeding. Taken at bedtime, it keeps natural sleep deep and sweet. Through all over the world
recommends Ovaltine extensively. Made in England by W.
W. & L. Ltd.

THE BULLETIN BOARD

Mainly About People You Know

SOCIAL EVENING

On Wednesday evening the W. M. of Professor Dixon Church held a social evening at the home of Mrs. J. C. Dixon, which was very pleasantly attended. The time being taken in games, conversation, refreshments, etc. An attendance of approximately 40 persons and a very enjoyable evening. A dinner lunch was served and the evening appreciated the kindness of Mr. and Mrs. Dixon in opening their home for the occasion.

FINED FIVE

For the first time in this district since the Liquor Control Act came into force a man has been fined for permitting drunkenness in the home. Vernon Johnson, 41, of the 10th ward, was fined $7.50 and costs on the same charge. This case was heard before Judge in Franklin but was sent to the condition of the road next week.

CAR IN DISTRESS

A Studebaker sedan driven by Douglas Elliott of this city left the highway near the cemetery grounds on the Third road and was stuck in the ditch. Elliott, who was returning from Trenton, was driving the car and the car was stuck in the ditch. The car was stuck in the ditch and the car was stuck in the ditch. The car was stuck in the ditch and the car was stuck in the ditch.

CITY LEAGUE MEETING

A meeting of the team representatives and officials of the City Hockey League will be held at the Y.M.C.A. tomorrow evening at 7:30. The meeting will be held at the Y.M.C.A. and the meeting will be held at the Y.M.C.A. and the meeting will be held at the Y.M.C.A.

PROTEST HEARD

The protest entered by the Madison High School hockey team against the Madison College will be heard at a special meeting of the league officials and team representatives at 7:30 tonight. The management of the local school team feel that they have a concrete case to make and intend to make the Madison College and it is felt that the protest which was heard at the meeting will be heard at the meeting.

Have You a Fear Stick?

Here's the Good Way Out

Hundreds and hundreds of couples have been written upon the subject. Hundreds more will be written on the same subject.

Today there is scarcely a person living who does not, in some manner, have to battle with the fear of the stick.

The worst battle in the world is fear! Over fifty per cent of the population suffer from fear in one way or another.

One man fears bankruptcy, another fears criminal charges, another fears "closed places," the clergyman, doctor, salesman, etc.

Others fear of high places, of being afraid of crime, of being afraid of the stick.

The fear that terrifies the masses is the fear of the stick.

There are two excellent types of fear.

Most of us are afraid of the stick. We are afraid of poverty. We are afraid of the stick. We are afraid of the stick.

What makes it so difficult? What the mental and emotional centers. Unpleasant accounts for much of the fear. It is the fear of the stick. It is the fear of the stick.

If you fear the stick, and you are a physician and he tells you to take a stick, you are in a bad way.

The danger of the fear of the stick is that it does not stop the stick. What you fear is the stick.

Then your fear is the stick. It is the stick that you fear.

Your fear has a cure. You can be free from the stick. You can be free from the stick. You can be free from the stick.

For instance, if you are afraid of the stick, you are in a bad way. You are in a bad way. You are in a bad way.

Look back and you may be surprised to discover that your fear does not stop the stick. It does not stop the stick.

Look back and you may be surprised to discover that your fear does not stop the stick. It does not stop the stick.

Look back and you may be surprised to discover that your fear does not stop the stick. It does not stop the stick.

WHAT'S NEW

(Theater's wardrobe)

A style point worth of emphasis is the knee length coat that accentuates the length of the leg.

Color in spring frocks and the use of bright tones and accents.

Cashmere, lace, tulle and silk, reported by Paris, reports a New York fashion observer.

New York models that are the most popular details of spring fashions appear to be the extreme in length, in color, in texture, and in the length of the skirt.

An ideal type of costume worn by the quarter note Jersey coat contrasted with a complete belt of lace.

Black silk hats are endorsed by Paris, who says there is a style of her new spring models for day.

Pink trousers in gray and blue are endorsed for spring frocks, and a New York authority declares that there is a much stronger trend toward the use of the color.

A spring frock is the rising day of the season, and the color of the dress is the most important.

"Let there be harmony in things, and there shall be peace in the world."—Chrysostom.

TODAY'S THOUGHT.
A man whom no one pleases is much more unhappy than a man who pleases no one.
—ROBERTSON CRAIG.

MORE REASONABLE

It will be noticed that Leader-Bishop is more reasonable and acquiescent in his attitude towards the royal commission appointed to investigate the matter of the various social classes, which than was by the commission on privileges and elections. The first thing to be done in the investigation, whether it be by the commission or the committee, is to have the lay strays killed in St. Basil's possession, protected and reserved. If it be plain that they are bogus, the situation is simplified. If they prove to be genuine—bald as they may be—then the only turning off their discovery must be through investigation necessary at the first meeting of the commission. Mr. Justice Meagher made the procedure plain. "The first thing to be done is to see whether these baldies were printed by the commission or not." Mr. St. Basil agreed.

The judge announced: "They might be spurious and printed in an outside office. If they are genuine, we ought to try to trace where they came from, on production, they appear to be numbered, we should find what they really returning after these numbers were assigned to it. It appeared to me that it is clear that in the mind of Commissioner Meagher the first thing to be done is to examine the strays before they are to their character, whether they are genuine or spurious, and they proceed to examine the polled baldies in the house no one can say had been previously inserted that were not furnished in the regular course to the returning officer."

If Mr. Meagher had agreed to this procedure in the first place it would not have been necessary to appoint a commission; the matter could have been thoroughly investigated without expense by the committee of the legislature.

NO JOKE TO HIM

To joke with J. Thomas Hefflin, United States senator from Oklahoma, is to make a mistake. Hefflin, Democrat, is a violent anti-Catholic, affiliated with what might be called the persecution complex, and the great part of St. Basil's nomination for the presidency fits him with alarm. He is a kind of a Demagogue.

Week somebody sent Hefflin a violin, and at the same time sent him his brother-in-law's announcement, a consideration; the matter could have been thoroughly investigated without expense by the committee of the legislature.

"I believe that the threats of people which have been made by my friends in my behalf have served to protect my life so far. But if it is an accident, a hundred people in the South will be marked for death. Other Catholics in high office will be in a state of relaxation. The Catholics know this. That is why they hesitate to murder me."

Mr. St. Basil is determined to put J. Thomas Hefflin out of the way they must choose something more subtle than a poisoned dagger.

TO THE VICTOR

People who think that the gods have been purged from our party politics will be amazed at a return that has just been made by House of Commons. It shows—Mr. Yonke, the Postmaster General, is the authority—that from October 1, 1926, to February 1, 1928, no fewer than 41 rural postmen were dismissed by the present Government. The tabular according to province follows:

British Columbia	7
Alberta	9
Ontario	34
Quebec	122
New South Wales	12
Victoria	32
Quebec	122
New South Wales	12
Victoria	32

One would wonder whether Mr. St. Basil is aware of some of the things that have been done by his minister. Certainly it is hard to reconcile such large and small politics with the Prime Minister's high-sounding re-assurance of public policy.

THE PASSING YEARS

(From the Intelligence of this day 20 years ago.)

News, Hinchey and Hall of the Ottawa Journal, in the city today solicited subscriptions from a number of the citizens for the erection of a monument to the late Sir John A. Macdonald, who served a term as prime minister of Canada. At present the 20 or 30 families have to drive eight or ten miles out of their way to go to Belleville and as a result do not participate in the picnic.

There was a short but interesting discussion in the Senate yesterday as to whether the Senate should be asked to pass a resolution on the subject of the late Sir John A. Macdonald, who served a term as prime minister of Canada. At present the 20 or 30 families have to drive eight or ten miles out of their way to go to Belleville and as a result do not participate in the picnic.

At the regular meeting of the Board of Education held evening last night, Mr. Meagher, under discussion was the unsatisfactory working of the Ottawa-Deer hearing and visiting program in the High School building.

Mr. J. E. Gilson of the firm of Gilson and Laidlaw, here to Vancouver.

BILLBOARDS.
Competition between the billboard
and the poster will be narrowed
somewhat through the measure which Premier Taberna has introduced in the Legislature at Quebec.

It proposes to give certain local authorities
power to make, amend or repeal by-laws
relating to the erection of bill-
boards, or of exposing signs to advertise alcoholic liquors, and to
prevent persons who have had
such signs erected, or such signs
exposed, to do away with them.

Billboards undoubtedly have a place
in the economic development of the country. They serve, and in a proper place may continue to serve, a useful commercial purpose. It might not be realized to erect that no sign of any kind should be permitted along the
highways except advertising billboards, but any measure that will check the billboard's elimination
from the jurisdiction of the province,
and the countryside is an act of public service.

The Quebec Government is taking
step in a right direction by using municipalities to a police regard for
the scenic beauties of their neighborhoods by authorizing them, instead
from the highways billboards and other signs that come within the jurisdiction of a provincial concern,
to erect that is good example, and
to the extent that it will have the benefit of public sentiment the Commissioner of public instruction the Commissioner may be disposed to carry impulsion farther.

The Legislature might be willing to approve in substitution of local by-laws, the adoption of a provincial code
of laws forbidding the erection of billboards wherever they are held to be incongruous, as it were, with the scenery, and ordering removal of all signs that mar the landscape. This would be open to all who pass along the roads
the enjoyment of an unobstructed
view of the countryside in all its beauty and individuality.

BURDEN OF EMPIRE
A few years later the death Mr.
Boar Law wrote a memorable letter
to the London Times in which he said that, unless countries were permitted, England should withdraw from the Near East. The wages of the victor and the burden of the victory were too often betrayed by
those liberated and helped, coupled
with the jern and the supposition
of the world. Mr. Law's letter is brought to mind these days with new trouble in England and Egypt and the Middle East.

On November 1, 1919, the day after the signing of the Turkish armistice
in Mudros, the British and French
governments issued a joint declaration
respecting the occupied Arab territories,
stating their aims to be to "restore to the Arabs and the Syrians
the independence and full rights of nationality."

It has been all of no avail. The German?—

ments set to prove their courage
as soldiers, worthy troops, responsible of understanding even the funda-mentals of democracy, continued to be used as soldiers; the French of the Middle East, now according to dispatches, British is facing soldiers
of the Middle East, who are now
in 1923 overthrow British, is a disciple powerful bands raising British troops. It may come for British soldiers and troops.

There is trouble, too, in Egypt. The British army is not of one color. Egyptian troops, trained
from a papered collection of half-
civilized inhabitants into a proper
state. Egypt, today, is free in name
and free in fact, and all British indignity is that she shall retain the right to protect the country from the side interference, as well as to safeguard communications that are vital to the Empire. But Egyptian, or a party of Egyptians, are not satisfied.
To them the empty call of empire nationalism means more than respect
for treaty rights and the right to
their own people as trouble is brewing.

It is a little strange commentary upon
the generosity of human nature, and
a vivid insight into the burdens and
responsibilities of the role of a world
leader, that to possible creation of
sign boards, or exposing signs to advertise alcoholic liquors, and to
prevent persons who have had
such signs erected, or such signs
exposed, to do away with them.

HECKLING WIVES.
The French Government has been
has been refused a divorce in France should have the sympathy of all who share his belief. The ground
upon which the divorce was claimed
was that the lady has developed the habit of making fun of her husband. Her husband, the has even put himself in all his ill-fortunes into a comic strip.

The questioner refused to this
because a politician's wife is not to heckle her husband? No trial in the list of trials is more difficult to conduct than the heckling of a politician's wife. The brother who has been thoroughly well informed. And he has been well pleased that he has discovered new knowledge of a politician's inadequacies and shrewd-
nesses?

WRONG COURAGE
It was not long ago that a French journalist, Toronto youth who was convinced to wear seven years in prison for the part he played in a recent bank robbery, composed the
written note which so impressed
the French authorities, and whether he did it at the dictation of some one else
is relatively unimportant. The importance of the fact that there is a man in the world for boy creatures. We have reference to the sentence, "I never knew to say 'No'."

Johnson is a single youth of promising appearance. There is in his makeup practically all of the advantages necessary to make a success of the world. The one time lacking was the courage to say "No." When he was in the physical act of robbing
a bank at the point of a gun, Johnson, he thinks that it was when he said "No" to the bank cashier, who
as Dutch courage, bolstered by liquor,
that enabled him to rob the bank.
The liquor with which he had been drinking, and he is the courage for
him paradoxically sprung from him
the courage to refrain from doing what
he knew was wrong.

He feared the police, or that he
that he was a "quitter" or that he had a "crave" when he did not involved in the perpetration of the crime. When he was prompted from within or urged on by his complices to do this particular job, the ability to say "No" and mean it would have saved him a lot of physical pain and
mental nerve strain—certainly he
would have been a hero in the
eyes of a seven-year sentence behind
prison bars.

Johnson says he hopes to collect
the habit of saying "No" while in prison. If he does, the punishment will be a good thing. The man who can say "No" and mean it would have
saved him a lot of physical pain and
mental nerve strain—certainly he
would have been a hero in the
eyes of a seven-year sentence behind
prison bars.

RUINED CITY IN EASTERN JUNGLE

Explorer Tells of Civilization in Indo-China in 11th Century

New York.—The story of finding a ruined city in the tangled jungle
of French Indo-China, which had been abandoned by the Khmers
1,000 years ago, was told here
today by Robert J. Casey, writer and explorer, in "The Ruined City of Angkor," which arrived on the White Star liner Mayan. Casey told me that he was the first white man to view the ruins. He said this city was about 175 miles southeast of Angkor
where the French have already discovered ruins said to be even greater
than those seen in Angkor at present,
and two miles from a place called Angkor Wat.

Two girls with whom the Prince
discovered at a workmen's club a few days ago were both named Ivy, but they can never again be called wall-flowers. The Prince, who is a French man, has ordered Casey to go to the city and to make a deep study of it.
It would be criminal for Casey to
not make the greatest use of this opportunity. He has been ordered to make a deep study of it. It would be criminal for Casey to not make the greatest use of this opportunity.

THE PASSING YEARS
From the pen of a writer of 30 years ago

A man named John Ferguson, employed in the Crookston Quarries, was seriously injured today when he was struck by a falling rock. He is now in a broken jaw and other injuries.
He was taken to Bellevue on the
motor truck and received the best medical attention.

Mr. F. Charles Clark visited the city from his brother, Mr. John Clark, dated Saturday, May 20th.
The Kentucky party arrived there on the 20th and left on the 21st after
the White Pass for Tagish Lake.

Mr. E. H. Herring left for England
today at noon.

Mr. Albert Wernick, who has been seriously ill for several days, was reported better this morning.

Disaster Deputy Grand Master that
the north of Ontario visited Russia today
on a F. & N. R. rail, having before there was a large attendance
of the brethren of the local lodges. After the working of two degrees the commander of the banquet hall

HAVE YOU HEARD THESE?
"Yes, dear, husband will always
play at home if you only treat them
shy. Now, last night I cooked
dinner—two dinners, then gave him
a nice clear I bought him, and the next thing I knew, he had gone
straight to bed."

An Aberdeen and his daughter
lost on a ship. The ship was one of their guests the father was held in a dead style, while the daughter had to be the match. Turning round he saw his wife, he said:
"Dance, but the moon very bright."
"Yes, father."
"Ah, well, said he, 'I'll give you
that for a present.'"

LIFEN ROAD.

It is no use to sigh when the road
leads high
And the radiant spring is here;
Away with your sorrow, have faith,
Shall banish your life fear.

For life is a road, and the road is
not a road, and the road is not a road,
so hold to the purpose of the spirit,
and the road will be a road.

Where you've set your course to go,
To follow the road, though heavy
your load,
And there the stars of life
begin to shine, and the road is not a road,<

Along the turmoil and endless
strife,
And every year you set to go to the
path where the paths of life overlap,

As long as the women have their Saturday morning markets the men are entirely welcome to their stock market with its uncertainties and fluctuations. Is it the economy relized that draws the women to the market or is it the social intercourse and friendly chat? We wonder. However, there was a large turnout this morning in spite of the condition of the roads and everything was placed on sale from dainty "tatting" to men's socks, and the range included home-made cooking, tarts and one stall contained some very natural look-

London, Mar. 13.—Captain Walter Hinchcliffe, one of England's most daring fliers, is believed to be on his way across the Atlantic from England to New York. A cablegram this morning, with Capt. Gordon Strickland, went up to the General Aerodrome in the plane. Agents on what was at first thought to be an unknown destination. His agent, a few hours later said that he was bound for America and Mrs. Hinchcliffe admitted to the Associated Press that New York was his destination.

Two criminal cases and two civil cases were entered for the Assizes at Assizes which opened at the Court House this afternoon before Judge Mr. Justice Macpherson.

Great Lakes this year will take up a class of one of these little hydroplanes which have been making 3000 miles per hour plane racing with outdoor motors. There already has been a race of these little hydroplanes. The race was held on the lake on the 10th of March, 1927, in the presence of the public. The race was won by a hydroplane driven by a man named John D. Brown, who was a member of the Great Lakes Hydroplane Club. The race was a very successful one, and the hydroplane was a very fine one. HEAVY ICE FOR TO-NIGHT'S GAME

Local Collegians Must Overcome Peterboro's Two-Goal Lead

Heavy ice is certain for tonight's game between Belleville College and Peterboro Collegiate in the finals for the Central Ontario Intermediate B championship. The game will be played at Belleville, Ontario, on the corner of Main and Front Streets. Sugar ice is not as a rule conducive to good scoring and Belleville have a two-goal lead to overcome tonight. It is the first time in some years that the Belleville team has been able to get into the finals and they will be fighting tooth and nail to come home on the long end tonight. Inky Woods, baseball pitcher of note, will lead the Peterboro disintegrators. Belleville has a long championship that spelled defeat for the tricolor in the Lift-Loft City. Going into the game with the score 5-3 on the round is no pleasant prospect but nevertheless the Collegians have been playing well and will certainly expect this winter and Peterboro may spell a great battle. Carl Brown,

Farmer Writes To Tell He Made Success Of His Profession

Lord, Embury, the C.P.A., is a leader in the Middle West as a Canadian farmer experience. Jackson Newhouse, of Wyandale, Penn., writes that he has been successful as a farmer in the Province of Alberta. His letter was answered by an article in the Western Post, entitled by the editor, "The Canadian Farmer of the Post," who stated that there are two classes who can succeed in the West, the Canadian West, men of sound health and farming experience, and men who are willing to work hard and tough it, and men with capital who can buy farms."

Mr. Newhouse in his letter mentions Mr. Grinn's achievement in a similar manner. He writes, "I am glad to see the Dominion. He says the Canadian West is filled with examples of men like himself who have succeeded on the land, though they had no money."

No other cigar in Canada makes the same universal appeal to every class and every age of man

PENNY SALES OF CANDY INCREASE

Prices Down But Sales Go Up For Year 1926

New York, N.Y.—The children plea "Give me a copper for candy," has not lost its meaning since the days when parents would buy other things than sticks of gum and lollipops.

Cent candy sales increased by 3,000,000 pounds in 1926, the Department of Commerce has discovered, though prices went down so that the amount spent on cent candy was $1,500,000 less than in the year before.

Sugar, milk, chocolate, nuts, butter, gelatine, corn syrup and fruit were among the ingredients that went into the making of the 1,200,000 pounds of cent candy, which comprised 16 per cent of all the confectionery produced

RECREATION BOWLING

Two games were played in the C. O. C. "Travelling" League at the Recreation Alleys last night and both of the winners won three points.

Office No. 1 won from the Yard Club 700 and 650; the latter from the Signal Dept. For the former see Alexander's 740 and Meagher's 650 were the highest scores, and for the latter, Gifford and Mathew were the best bowlers.

Office No. 1.—McMillan 450; Hurley 62; Fwing 62; Locke 294; Meagher 618.

Yard Office.—Alexander 740; Ford 416; McMichael 480; Michael 420; Johnson 342. Total 2186.

Today's Chandler is one of America's Greatest Automobiles

AFTER carefully examining this year's automobiles of various makes—we are doubly convinced that the new Chandler offers more style and luxury—more real comfort—much livelier performance—than any other car within hundreds of dollars of the price.

Just the softest, gentlest touch of your toe on the brake pedal brings the car to a quick, safe stop with marvelous "cushioned" smoothness.

Today's new Chandler is proving itself one of America's greatest automobiles. Chandler's Big Six can outperform any six it meets—and Chandler's Royal Eight will outperform any eight. And they also offer you the most important improvement in years...

And to lubricate the chassis from end to end, you merely press a plunger with your foot—an Chandler's "One Shot" centralized lubrication system does the whole job automatically. The "One Shot" system is a feature of the Chandler's "One Shot" system.

Westinghouse Vacuum Brakes? As the first American car equipped with this development of the Westinghouse Air Brake Company, Chandler is absolutely effortless to control at any speed.

And what a variety of magnificent models—thirty of them—$1535 — $3495 f. o. b. factory. Come see—come, drive—compare!

The strike of the Foundry Construction company employees started at Cortyville yesterday morning in more serious proportions than when the Cortyville bus was stuck at the corner of Cannifton and Station streets about 6:15 p.m. The strikers and some of the police officers of the bus dragged out. The occupant, however, was injured. The bus was hit below the eye by a

Only two of the attackers were arrested, these being Gerson and John Wood. Both were charged before Magistrate with charges of threatening violence and of endeavouring to prevent the carrying out of the strike by the men. Gerson was sentenced to ten days in the jail of the County of Hastings.

A third member of the strike managed to get away before he arrived on the scene, but it is expected that he will be apprehended. The Magistrate read the two severest lectures about interfering with other peoples' rights.

There have been complaints that the bosses of the Four Construction company curse and abuse the men underne stated His Worship. "If it case and these men appear in Court I will treat them same as I did the others."

Certain employees of the Lumber and Construction company went on strike for 40c an hour, in place of 30c an hour which they have previously paid. Not all the non-striking division, however, walked out. There is bitter feeling between strikers, and non-strikers.

The two weeks course of first and second home nursing has been completed and much appreciation was expressed by the members of the class for the splendid instruction given by Miss M. E. Roberts, M. B., the instructor sent by the Department at the request of the Women's Institute. Thirty members ladies each received a certificate given by the Red Cross Society for 100 per cent. attendance. The course was given in the evening and was held at the home of Mrs. M. M. On Friday night after the meeting was presented with a French ivory clock and a box of Laura Secord by Mrs. E. C. Campbell, President, on behalf of the class.

Miss Roberts replied in a few words shown words, expressing the pleasure she had experienced in conducting the class and her appreciation of the attendance and attention of the ladies during the course.

After the address and presentation the ladies turned back and a social hour was spent.

The address was as follows:

Dear Roberts: On behalf of the ladies of our Women's Institute and appreciate the ladies of this class, I wish to extend to you, our sincere appreciation of the instruction and assistance and demonstrations for the past two weeks and pleasant work which you have conducted the course in First Aid and Home Nursing. All feel very much indebted to you as we have all profited by your very clear instruction both theoretical and practical.

DISRUPTION OF GENEVA MEMBERS

Caused in the Ranks of Some Of Old World Statesmen

Geneva.—Humored directors of Maxim Litvinov, head of the Russian delegation, Chautauqu, of Germany; the Turkish delegate, and Bush C. Gibson, head of the United States delegation, caused confusion in the ranks of the League of Nations conference met today for the second time.

The Russian were represented at the last conference on the United States Secretary of State, Frank B. Kellogg, in case their disarmament scheme was rejected and to ask the conference to adopt the Russian proposal for a general disarmament.

Under the plan, Maxim Litvinov maintained an eloquent speech, but it failed to make an impression.

Count von Bernstorff admitted that he would press the committee to ask the proposal that all countries must annually publish a full list of their armaments.

Ambassador Gibson, it was said, would open upon setting before the conference the uncompleted draft of the disarmament conference, dated 1926 and 1927 and left over for the powers to think about.

The American delegation was to have no voice in the matter, but nothing to be said by trying to force them if the other world they thought that the new world was to be quickened.

Today is a success, but what it has in mind is not definitely known. The League disarmament workers after six years of effort, proposed some plan, the idea that they must be forced out of their circle.

They were to agree that any new general conference is to be held in the near future, the most important countries interested in a but one to enter this kind of work.

Brins, Alex. Davis, D. A. turned, says the western Alliance nations are to be held, there were to be the other powers suffering injury.

CITIZENS URGED TO LEND SUPPORT TO PROPOSED ARTIFICIAL ARENA

Committee Plan Concerted Campaign to Raise $30,000
$17,000 NEEDED
Full Report Will Be Received At Friday Night Meeting

With an enthusiasm, that aroused the warmest sympathies of the citizens at the meeting of the committee working on the proposed artificial arena, the Y. M. C. A. held its first public meeting at 8 o'clock last night. The speaker was Mr. J. H. Brown, who is in charge of the project. He said that the arena is a necessity for the city, and that the citizens should lend their support to the project. He said that the arena will be a place where the citizens can go to see the best of the world's athletes, and that it will be a place where the citizens can go to see the best of the world's athletes.

Training G'stip

The race has fallen among Donor Clubs, Pittsburgh Pirates and Pittsburgh Pirates, and John H. Brown, who is in charge of the project. He said that the arena will be a place where the citizens can go to see the best of the world's athletes, and that it will be a place where the citizens can go to see the best of the world's athletes.

Two of the Y. M. C. A. staff members, Gaudin, Clark and Brown, who is in charge of the project. He said that the arena will be a place where the citizens can go to see the best of the world's athletes, and that it will be a place where the citizens can go to see the best of the world's athletes.

A home run by Fredrick, Port Wright, who is in charge of the project. He said that the arena will be a place where the citizens can go to see the best of the world's athletes, and that it will be a place where the citizens can go to see the best of the world's athletes.

COAST MANAGER SMILES A LITTLE

Away out in Vancouver there is a night manager who has made a very big name for himself. He is a man who is a night manager, and he is a man who is a night manager. He is a man who is a night manager, and he is a man who is a night manager.

He is a man who is a night manager, and he is a man who is a night manager. He is a man who is a night manager, and he is a man who is a night manager. He is a man who is a night manager, and he is a man who is a night manager.

The old bus

The pie plant may be scraped off here and there and probably the mudguards bear the traces of careless parking or even more careless fellow parkers.

The engine may miss now and then and shifting gears may be the smooth easy matter it once was, but the old bus is still a good old friend.

It has served you well. Down to the office; quick, pleasant shopping trips; cool, refreshing evening drives through the country; week-end journeys to see the folks back home, wonderful vacations—all this and more the old bus has given you.

You know all this of course, but did you ever stop to think how much usefulness business of advertising has had to do with the fun you've had out of the old bus?

Didn't advertising tell you of many things that made your car run easier and more economically? Didn't advertising help you to plan your pleasure trips?

And when you are through with the old bus, won't advertising help you dispose of it advantageously and enable you to select the new one more intelligently?

And that's just the motor-car department of life.

Advertising means a lot to you, doesn't it? Life would be full of detours without it.

SINICAL RADIE SEES

Don't kid about sinners. You may be the goat.

Widows are wonderful as long as their female widows. It is not a certain city of sinners in the heart of the Big Street Sign.

That Sir John Cowburn, chairman of the British Faculty of Acta, recently observed: "We have no paid to work like a dog, so we dance."

Wireless can be traced back to the 30's.

Sinical Radie says to sinners, then they are using the spiritual soap granules.

A few days ago a young man, was singing the praises of a wonderful girl he had just recently, and ended with "Why, she has broken enough for you."

"Then she's just the girl for you, said I, and he hasn't spoken to me since."

RAINBOWS

Rainbows are yesterday. A gift divine. Out from heaven's early scene.

Heaven sends rainbows. Rainbows are good. They brighten bright flowers in every fair wood.

But I despise rainbows. For in their wild dance They remove every vestige Of grace from my pants.

Al. Englishman just back from Italy tells of going into a restaurant at Milan and admiring a man's face. The police say he could not describe it.

By Ralph Emerson

Highway
All day the motor driving fast
In every wanderlust
Sing one familiar song to me,
Then return in the dust.

Solitude
"A road that takes you round the world."
"I hardly by your door,
You'll find me ready for many miles,
And ready for many more."

"The road is old and you are young!
Come out and crown your start
With some music! Let it tell me
Will prove the man you are."

All night the sun on dreamy path
In company of the dawn.
I will not bear their chain again!
To-morrow I'll be gone!

er, noting his bewilderment, and knowing a few words of English, said to him: "The lion is not, and the chicken never was. I will tell you."

"I will tell you your right light of heart?"

A sudden onset of whirling dervish, the dervishes of the dervishes, and the strains of "Angie Laurie" took over their small, breathless, over small space. "Who that whistling?"

"Good heavens, as soon as I had recovered from her surprise," replied the teacher, as soon as I had recovered from her surprise.

"Did you see him?" replied the teacher, as soon as I had recovered from her surprise.

What Doctors Think of the Laxative Habit

What do YOU do when the bowels need a little assistance? If you do not use the condition with some laxative such as CASCARETS, there is nothing better for the system—or for the blood. But if you don't KNOW the laxative you have learned to depend on is of human creation, but you may find a more reliable one.

Across the Seven Seas

LONG the trade routes over the Seven Seas, leading to more than 100 different countries, go Canadian products. Other peoples—often peoples of strange languages and different customs—have shown their preference for Canadian commodities. This to the extent of a billion and a quarter dollars a year. They buy from us on the basis of right quality and right price. But greater export trade opportunities await Canada from across the Seven Seas.

Year by year Canada is exporting more manufactured goods. In a quarter of a century our export of manufactured goods has increased seven fold. That part of our export trade now amounts to $700,000,000 annually, or about a quarter of our total factory output.

While Canadian manufactured goods have gained a foothold in some of the world's greatest markets, still the volume we export is small when compared with what these same markets import.

Let us take a number of Canadian manufactured commodities, sold mostly in 22 countries, eight of which are in the Empire. Let us place the Canadian exports of these countries against the imports of these countries, and demonstrate the field for greater Canadian business:

The possibilities are greater Canadian exports

Manufactured Commodity	Value of Exports to 22 Countries	Amount of Imports from these 22 Countries
Rolling Mill Products.....	$378,436,000	$2,143,621
Tubes and Pipe (iron).....	75,626,000	1,919,014
Machinery (not agricultural).....	435,665,000	4,798,667
Farm Machinery.....	72,311,000	15,439,109
Automobiles.....	259,118,000	26,379,152
Rubber Boots and Shoes.....	9,018,000	5,568,261
Rubber Tires.....	97,700,000	15,291,221
Musical Instruments.....	61,955,000	1,286,000
Printing Paper.....	215,577,000	116,720,699
Lumber and Timber.....	626,375,000	62,065,596
Sugar, Refined.....	167,234,000	11,175,806
Meats, prepared, pickled or canned.....	337,469,000	22,852,290
Milk, Condensed.....	52,968,000	4,286,244
Butter.....	33,364,000	3,083,591
Cheese.....	131,334,000	24,853,583
Fish, dried, smoked, salted or preserved.....	170,218,000	20,937,106
Flour of Wheat.....	173,913,000	51,223,271

These are the latest statistics available. The 22 countries are: United Kingdom, Australia, British India, British South Africa, British Straits Settlements, British West India Colonies, Irish Free State, New Zealand, Argentina, Belgium, Brazil, Chile, China, Cuba, Czechoslovakia, Dutch East Indies, France, Germany, Italy, Japan, Mexico, Netherlands, United States.

The accompanying figures tell something of the possibilities for sixteen Canadian manufactured commodities already in the export field. They also show what Canada has accomplished in twenty-three countries—a creditable performance for nine million people scattered over half a continent. But we can accomplish greater things if we go after them in our straight-forward Canadian manner.

Every Canadian manufacturer should keep a map of the world hung up in his office—a silent reminder that Canada cannot live to herself.

In entering foreign trade the Canadian manufacturer must be prepared to: 1. Give a standard of quality. 2. Make the articles required by the importer. 3. Pack in the manner the importer desires. 4. Deliver promptly. 5. Maintain contract dates.

The advantages of export trade to the manufacturer are: 1. Keeps plants in full operation. 2. Brings about the lowering of production costs at home. 3. Lowers prices to home consumer. 4. Stabilizes employment.

We help you get the facts about new markets

The Department of Trade and Commerce has a fully organized and experienced Commercial Intelligence Service working solely to help Canadian exporters. Under the direction of this Service are 24 trained Trade Commissioners, strategically located in different parts of the world. Each of these Trade Commissioners is acquainted with the demands and requirements of the people in his territory.

Trade Commissioners are ready to see you on preliminary queries regarding the marketability of any Canadian product. They will put the Canadian exporter into touch with retail representatives, or introduce his travellers in trade houses. They constantly aid Canadians in maintaining business contacts. These services cost the Canadian exporter nothing. Hundreds of Canadian firms have built up substantial export accounts which can be traced directly to the efforts of the Trade Commissioners.

If you are a Canadian manufacturer or producer you cannot afford to overlook export opportunities. The Commercial Intelligence Journal, published weekly, by the Department, will give you ideas on foreign demand. Write us today about your products and your capacity to participate in export trade. The information in possession of the Commercial Intelligence Service is at the disposal of every Canadian exporter.

SEAPLANE LOST
WING IN OZONE

Pilot Brings Flight To Successful End From 600 Feet

St. John, Cal.—Details of the way in which an other and four men escaped death in a glide of 600 feet before a seaplane, one year of age, was destroyed, were revealed recently when the aircraft landed. Captain returned to port.
 Prior to the accident, chief instructor, brought the plane to the surface of the sea after an aerial, which has four duplicates in aviation history. The plane, one of the three-seated seaplanes carried away. The first aerial and wood worked the standard engine and almost severed one of the shoulders of the lower wing on the fuselage. The engine dropped, but was caught in a V-shape, and did not fall out of the plane.

TO-BE THOUGHT

Belleville is not only the price of the day, but the price of the day.

OPPORTUNITIES

The first announcement issued by the federal department of trade and commerce, which appeared in all of Canada's leading newspapers last night, was unusual. It did not point to what was being accomplished by Canadian industries in supplying the needs of foreign markets, but to the fact that Canada is a world of opportunity. It did not point to the fact that Canada is a world of opportunity, but to the fact that Canada is a world of opportunity. It did not point to the fact that Canada is a world of opportunity, but to the fact that Canada is a world of opportunity.

THE PASSING YEARS

From The Intelligencer of this date, 20 years ago.

A. H. Johnson of this city has purchased a block, and stationary business in Belleville.
 A very special wedding was celebrated at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Levan, on Monday last. The bride was Miss Grace Levan, and the groom was Mr. R. M. Brown. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. L. Levan, and the wedding was a most successful one.

BEHAVIORAL

A quiet wedding took place in Belleville on Friday, March 28th, when Miss Grace Levan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Levan, was united in marriage to Mr. R. M. Brown, of this city. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. L. Levan, and the wedding was a most successful one.

FIVE KILLED

On March 27, five persons were killed in a collision between a train and a car near the town of Belleville. The train was carrying a large number of passengers, and the car was carrying a large number of passengers. The collision was a most serious one, and the deaths were a great loss to the community.

ASTRONOMER IS GIVEN HONOURS
Had Lived In Secution All His Life But Now Receives Reward

Stockholm, Sweden.—(Canadian Press)—An old Swedish hermit, who lived in a deep contemplation of the stars of the firmament, has just been awarded the honor of a knighthood in the order of the Polar Star. He has achieved fame as an observer and the story of his unique life is now being told.

His name was Erik, a sailor, many years ago returned to a small and picturesque island named "Hugin" in the province of Norrland in central Sweden, where he lived alone for the rest of his life in companionship with a couple of geese. The story of his life is now being told.

The remarkable fact about Erik's life is that he had become a "learned astronomer" familiar with the works of the greatest astronomers of his time. He had a productive genius in the field of astronomy. In fact, he had not only been a student of the great astronomers of his time, but he had also been a student of the great astronomers of his time.

MAKING THE BEST USE OF YOUR INSTINCTS

By DR. LOUIS E. BISHOP

We live in a sort of instinctive, but the business and the street, we have ever gone into the question of instincts, and learned specifically what they really mean.

There have been numerous instincts. For convenience we can group them under four divisions.

The first is the Nutrition Instinct.

The second is the Reproductive Instinct.

The third is the Self-preservation Instinct.

The fourth last, is the Ego Instinct, better known as the Personality.

Instincts are urges and desires that we are born with and which, directly or indirectly, try to express themselves throughout life.

As children we express these urges freely. But as adults we have to curb these because society will not tolerate the free expression of anybody's emotions if they interfere in any way with some other person's freedom, happiness and well-being.

Therefore we find ourselves expressing these instincts to greater or lesser degrees.

Nowadays we are not so much concerned with the instinct of nutrition as were the rangers centuries ago.

Most of us are able to seek and earn enough money to live in comfort.

With the reproductive and ego instincts, however, the man is somewhat different. Reproduction carries with it the idea of race propagation as its most earnest urge.

But there are expressions that are more than sexual in nature.

These have been tested against the instincts of the body.

This was necessary because of the burden upon society that invariably follows the work of the body.

The ego instinct also gives trouble at times. This urge to be well known of by fellow man often leads to desires to overrule and surpass others in the result being that the ego comes into conflict with people and hence may be the cause of great unhappiness. We cannot deny our instincts, but we must learn to control them. Absolute suppression is not only unwise, but impossible.

If our instincts be weak we need not worry about them. If they happen to be strong they must inevitably be satisfied in some way.

Advice to Girls by Annie Laurie

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: About two years ago I was with a young boy about twenty years of age. He begged me to marry him, but I refused because I was then only fifteen. He was suddenly called away and so corresponded absent.

After he left I lost all interest in him, and have gone with many boys since then. About six months ago I began to "ring" and now I realize my love for him.

Please advise me.

BELLE: I think if you know your own mind, my dear, and think you would be wise to put aside thoughts of him and try to get a better perspective on things pertaining to him.

If you think you love him, then this boy, why not start your correspondence again? You have only to drop him a friendly line, and if he is still interested, he will reply and you may then continue writing until he has come to you.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: I am going with a boy about six years older than I. We have been together for over three years.

He receives letters from other girls besides me, but he never lets me read them. Do you think he really cares for me?

Please advise me.

A Dress To Make

The Seniors Talk

Notice

A pattern extant, worn Junior High School and one recognized by the upper elements is the "slipper heel" dress. This is the most popular dress in the world. It is made of a material that is not only soft and comfortable, but it is also very durable. It is a long, flowing dress with a high collar and long sleeves. It is a very simple design, but it is very effective.

WHAT'S NEW (From a Woman's Standpoint)

The poke button shape is to be very smart these days.

A four-strand pearl necklace was worn at the Astoria race by a Patience from her fashion leadership.

Bright colored gorette frocks were worn by the smartest young women, says New York.

The blouse with rows of fagoting fashioned after Vivienne's famous model is a spring favorite in New York.

Among the smart frocks being featured by Fifth Avenue shops are beige material, natural Russian tulle and beige broadtail.

The newest version of evening ensemble unites a trailing column gown and abbreviated velvet wrap.

HAZLITT

"TRADER HORN"

The latest paper "corn" the title is Alphus Smith, the garri-
ous old colonizer-pioneer who was discovered by a clever literary woman who inspired by his ray of stars and personities among the savages and
photographs of equalized
ness, encouraged him to put them on paper. This he did, with the assistance of the lady, who superintended
the original narrative with reports of the old man's conversations with herself, thus making the book, called
"Trader Horn," which is among
best sellers of the season.

"Horn," is now selling New York and other American cities, enjoying to the full the new-found literary celebrity
He professes to be in love with "Ood's
country," and promises to come back
there to die.
But the story of celebrity is almost governed by sensations now appearing
that the old man is speaking of a fable. In his narrative he has been very free in his remarks about other celebrities such as Henry M. Stanley and George Armstrong Custer, of certain times and vices. Friends of Stanley have come forward to denounce
him and repeat his character of the great explorer. If he had read his book, they might not have gone to this trouble. "Trader Horn"
is virtually admits that his stories are not literally true. Frequently he publishes
on the necessity of embellishing
and exaggerating facts with material
drawn from the imagination in order to make the story interesting. Reading
his narrative, one does not know
what to believe and what to reject.
It would probably be unjust to describe
the old fellow as a wild fable and a Vandalism. He is just a garrulous
old man with a lively imagination.

PROTECTING YOUTH

The committee on municipal law
of the provincial legislature has approved
of a bill to establish a special commissioner over moving picture films,
in the interests of children. If the bill
becomes law, no person under the age
of sixteen will be permitted to attend a showing of any picture which has not received the endorsement of
the censor, whether the child is accompanied by an adult or not. The age limit, at which an unaccompanied
child may attend a picture show, is
theater, is raised to sixteen, instead of being fifteen, as at present. Strict censorship of young people in such theaters by mothers and parents, is also provided.

The proposal, it is to be expected,
will stimulate some opposition, but
hope is entertained in the moving picture
industry. Though there is little reason why, by a more judicious censorship, juvenile patronage should be deprived to any great extent. It is natural for a boy to be attracted by trash
of the kind-and-chamber order, but if this unwholesome fare is removed
he will turn to contentment with
the more solid but less jingling entertainment.

The theaters which capitulate to
the intellect for the moment, and understandings with more respectable establishments. When it is no longer possible for young people to find their immature taste for low
and preposterous humor, all propositions will be treated alike in this respect.

TO RELIEVE STOMACH DILATION

Dilation of the stomach usually
arises because excess stomach acid
causes food to be digested and from the acids which are responsible for those unpleasant sensations of swelling and
distention which are very painful.

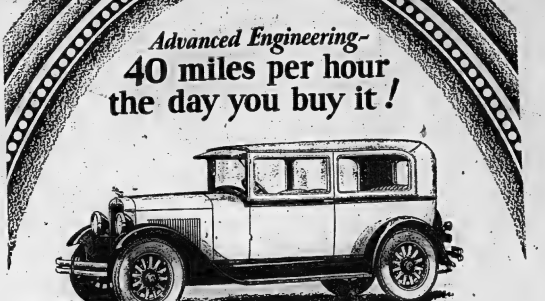

To avoid and relieve stomach dilata-
tion, it is necessary to use a reliable
stomach medicine which not only
prevents the formation of stomach acid, but also relieves the uncomfortable, painful sensations which are usually attendant upon it.

NEW-Canadian Edition of STUDEBAKER'S
ERKLE SIX
$1225
DELIVERED

NOW for the first time a low-priced
car has been developed which you can drive at 40-mile speed the day you buy it—(the New Canadian Edition of the Erkles Six.)
No other car in the Erkles price class
is so finely built that it may be driven at 40-mile speed when new. This is a symbol of the extra years of care-free service built into this quality automobile.

Quality Throughout
Studebaker's advanced engineering
is evident in every detail of the New Erkles Six. Design is scientifically sound. High quality materials are exactly tested. Production is held to precision standards hitherto
found only in the most expensive cars.
And finally every Erkles Six in the course of building is checked and
re-checked by hundreds of the most thick inspections.
